WESTTOWN WINS CHAMPIONSHIP; ABINGTON TAKES QUAKER CUP

In the championship game delayed by weather, Westtown topped ANC 65-39 before a packed home crowd on Tuesday, February 11th. After trailing 13-9 at the end of the first period, Westtown parlayed a 15-6 second quarter advantage into a 24-19 halftime lead. The Quakers then exploded in the second half, outscoring the Lions by a 41-20 margin, including a 10-0 run to start the third quarter. The winners were paced by Jared Nickens with 18 points, Georgios Papagiannis with 17 and Jair Bolden with 15. Papagiannis just missed a triple-double, pulling 16 rebounds and blocking 9 shots. Vince Jackson netted 14 for the Lions and Darryl Bryant chipped in with 13. In the second period Westtown switched defenses from zone to man-to-man and held ANC to a 13-58 shooting performance for the game. For Westtown the title was their third overall and their second in the past three years. In 2012 they also topped ANC in the championship game. The finals appearance for ANC was their 8th in the past 10 years. The Lions have been victorious in half of those games.

In semifinal action, played on Friday, February 7th after a 2-day delay, host Westtown topped Shipley 57-42 and ANC beat Friends' Central 65-55 in a game played at Germantown Friends due to a power outage in Bryn Athyn. Westtown jumped out to a 35-12 halftime lead and coasted from there. Bolden had 14, Nickens 13 and Edvinas Rupkus 11 for the winners. Shawn Harvey paced the Gators with 10 points. At Germantown, the Lions doubled up the Phoenix 16-8 after one period, but had a real struggle to maintain their lead, yielding it a couple of times in the third and fourth quarters, before their press caused turnovers leading to buckets to ice the win in the final two minutes. Bryant led the winners with 19 points, while Carnel Harley added 16 and Jackson netted 12. Jonathan Lawton led all scorers with 31 points, including 17 for 18 from the foul line.

Abington won the inaugural Quaker Cup with a 66-56 home win over Moorestown on Friday, February 7th. The 'roos inched ahead of the Foxes, leading by 1 after the first period, by 5 at halftime and by 7 at the three-quarter mark. Jordan Greene led all scorers with 31 points, including 13 of the hosts' 19 third quarter points. Joe Robinson chipped in with 21 (10 in the opening frame). Moorestown, which hung in with a team that had beaten them by 35 points in the regular season, was led by a trio of double-digit scorers (Jordan White and Joe Biedeman each with 17 and Dhalil Sadiq with 15).

In Quaker Cup semifinal action, delayed a day until Thursday, February 6th by winter weather, Abington topped Friends Select 80-44 and Moorestown nipped George School 32-30. At Abington, 10 players scored, led by Robinson with 28 (12 in the first quarter), Greene with 20 and Jordan Baker with 10. Kris Warren netted 18 and Andrew Chachoute had 17 for the Falcons. At Moorestown Sadiq nailed a three with 5 seconds remaining to clinch the win for the Foxes. Sadiq led all scorers with 10 points, while Luke Haug paced the Cougars with 9 points.

In the inaugural 4/5 play-in game on Friday, January 31st host Shipley edged Germantown 39-35 in a raggedly played game full of fouls, turnovers and missed shots and free throws. Eventually Harvey found the range for the Gators and sank 3 of 4 free throws in the final minute to secure the win and send the hosts off to Westtown for a semifinal matchup. Shipley had balanced scoring with three players (John Parker, Quamier Johnson and Kiyon Hardy) with 8 points each and Harvey with 7. Andrew Aldridge took game honors for the Tigers with 12 points, while Ray Leon added 11.

In games leading up to the playoffs George School doubled up Friends Select 64-32 at the Falcon Dome on Wednesday, January 29th. Daniel Lindsay led the Cougars with 13 points and Jibri Loving added 12. Warren led all scorers with 18. On Thursday, January 30th visiting Shipley topped George 65-35. The Gators placed 10 players in the scoring column, led by Hunter Cummin with 11 and Kevin Zwolak with 10 points. Haug and Harrison Fritz each had 9 for the Cougars. The final regular season game was made up on Friday, January 31st. Host Moorestown placed 12 players in the scoring column on the way to a 64-35 win over Friends Select. Biedeman, with 14 points, led the way for the Foxes who used a 16-2 advantage in the 3rd quarter to put the game out of reach. Warren took game scoring honors for the Falcons with 21 points on 7 threes.
