

POAGE AND LAGER LEAD ALL-LEAGUE SELECTIONS

Senior midfielders Michael Poage from George School and Rob Lager from Friends' Central were named the outstanding players in the Friends Schools League by the league coaches. They will be named to the Eastern Pennsylvania Soccer Coaches All-Star team and will play in the Super Soccer Classic at Villanova on December 7. They are joined by thirteen other players on the Friends Schools League all-league team. This squad, with a few extra players, will compete in the Easter Seals Charity Classic at Haverford College on Friday, November 29 against an as-yet undetermined all-star opponent from another league.

The entire FSL all-league squad is as follows:
