

ALL-LEAGUE TEAM NAMED, TWO PLAYERS GET HIGH HONORS

Senior Bob Benck a forward from George School was named by the FSL coaches as the top player in the league and therefore qualified for all-state honors. Benck was joined by Moorestown senior keeper David Barbour as the FSL representatives on the Southeastern PA all-area team. They will play in an all-star game at Villanova University on Sunday, November 25. The following players were named to the 1990 FSL all-league teams. The members of the first team will play as a unit against the all-league team from an as yet undetermined league at Haverford College on Friday, November 23 at a time to be announced.
